

REPORTED SPEECH 2

2º Bachillerato

STATEMENTS

1. "We are very late", he said.
2. "I want to speak to you", she said.
3. "She is ready to come with us", they said.
4. "I'm going to town with my sister", she said.
5. "They don't know you", my father said.
6. "We are living in another house at present", my friends said.
7. "I've just been to the butcher's", Mrs Holborn said.
8. "She has finished now", her mother said.
9. "I fell downstairs last weekend", I said.
10. "I was very ill yesterday", Helen said.
11. "I have never been there before", Peter's friend said.
12. "I'll leave it on the table", he said.
13. "Mary can come in when I have finished my work", he said.
14. "You can come next week", I said.
15. "They have been studying Maths", she said.
16. "She was given a present", Mark said.
17. "I'm giving a party this week for my friends", she said.
18. "You must study harder", my mother said to me.
19. "I'm going to study this afternoon", the boy said.
20. "The boys couldn't lift the big box", he said.
21. "I'll see you tomorrow", she said to Peter.
22. "They bought this house two years ago", I said.
23. "We'll see her next summer", they said.
24. "You should go to the doctor's", he told him.
25. "You should have gone to the doctor's", he told me.

REPORTED SPEECH 2 Answers

2º Bachillerato

STATEMENTS (We can omit the conjunction "That" in all sentences, as indicated in sentence no. 1):

1. He said (that) they were very late.
2. She said that she wanted to speak to me.
3. They said that she was ready to go with them.
4. She said that she was going to town with her sister.
5. My father said that they didn't know me.
6. My friends said that they were living in another house in that moment.
7. Mrs Holborn said that she had just been to the butcher's.
8. Her mother said that she had finished then.
9. I said that I had fallen downstairs the previous weekend.
10. Helen said that she had been very ill the previous day / the day before.
11. Peter's friend said that he/she had never been there before.
12. He said that he would leave it on the table.
13. He said that Mary could go in when she had finished his work.
14. I said that you /he /she/they could go the following week.
15. She said that they had been studying Maths.
16. Mark said that she had been given a present.
17. She said that she was giving a party that week for her friends.
18. My mother said to me that I had to/must study harder.
19. The boy said that he was going to study that afternoon.
20. He said that the boys couldn't lift / weren't able to lift the big box.
21. She said to Peter that she would see him the following day / the next day.
22. I said that they had bought that house two years before.
23. They said that they would see her the following summer.
24. He told him that she should go to the doctor's.
25. He told me that I should have gone to the doctor's.

